Dear reader, it is no longer a secret that a mind loves a story more than a list. Therefore, we decided to create a story that teaches popular English sayings and entertains at the same time.

The SMART STORY encompasses more than one hundred and fifty carefully chosen proverbs, idioms and phrases. The knowledge of English is incomplete without understanding them.

This book is an attempt to teach how to use them while writing or speaking. I hope we have been successful in this endeavour. After learning the technique, you can try to create your own stories using the words, numbers, formulas and sayings you want to memorise. Let's make learning a fun!
